8 AM - 4 PM

St. Louis Union Station Hotel, St. Louis, MO

What is Pediatric Specialty Day?

We are excited to announce the inaugural ASHT Pediatric Specialty Day! Join us on a journey beyond the fundamentals, delving into the intricacies of pediatric hand therapy. This specialized full-day pre-conference event promises an exploration of unique diagnoses, innovative treatments and the myriad triumphs and challenges inherent in the realm of pediatric hand therapy.

Who should attend the Pediatric Specialty Day?

Whether you're a seasoned practitioner seeking to deepen your expertise or a newcomer eager to expand your knowledge, ASHT Pediatric Specialty Day is your gateway to a comprehensive understanding of the evolving landscape of pediatric hand therapy.

When can I register for Pediatric Specialty Day?

Registration will open in mid-May. Registration links and information will be available on the ASHT website.

Do I have to register for the ASHT 2024 Annual Meeting to attend Pediatric Specialty Day?

Attendees will be able to register for the 2024 Pediatric Specialty Day as part of their ASHT Annual Meeting registration or as a stand-alone registration. Pediatric Specialty Day is a separate ticketed event. However, a bundled package will be offered that provides a discount for those registering for both the Pediatric Specialty Day and the main Annual Meeting.

I am new to the ASHT Annual Meeting and am not familiar with the overall meeting schedule. When will the Pediatric Specialty Day take place in relation to the main meeting?

Welcome to the ASHT Annual Meeting! We are so excited that you are considering participation, and we look forward to welcoming you in St. Louis! Attendance at the Pediatric Specialty Day will not compete with participation in the main meeting, and we hope that you will choose to stay for the full experience. On Thursday, other ticketed 2-hour or 4-hour pre-conference events will be held that will overlap with Pediatric Specialty Day. (Attendees will not be able to participate in two overlapping pre-conference events.) All pre-conference events will end by 4 PM on Thursday, and the Opening Session for the main ASHT Annual Meeting will take place at 4:30 PM. We plan to offer pediatric hand therapy content throughout the main meeting on Friday through Sunday, including in instructional concurrent sessions, clinical practice practice posters and scientific sessions.

Will ASHT provide a virtual component for participating in the Pediatric Specialty Day?

Yes, ASHT will offer a virtual registration for the Pediatric Specialty Day. Virtual attendees will have access to the recorded sessions through the ASHT On-Demand Platform. There will be no live streamed sessions.

How many CEUs can I earn at the Pediatric Specialty Day?

The ASHT 2024 Pediatric Specialty Day will provide attendees the opportunity to earn up to 6.5 contact hours (or 0.65 CEUs).
